

Certificate of Advanced Studies (CAS) Sex- and Gender-Specific Medicine

www.gender-medicine.ch

Content

- latest evidence on gender-specific aspects in experimental and clinical research and patient care
- biological differences (,Sex') in disease development, manifestation and progression as well as their impact on diagnosis, treatment strategies, and clinical endpoints
- sociocultural differences (,Gender') in primary and secondary disease prevention, symptom awareness, health behavior
- support to develop and implement gender-sensitive diagnostic tools and gender-sensitive treatments

Organization

- Collaboration universities Bern and Zurich
- 4 compulsory modules, 5 out of 7 optional compulsory modules, and the final thesis will give 12 ECTS credit points
- Modules can be booked separately
- Lecturers from Bern, Zurich and Lausanne as well as well as other national and international experts
- Start: May 2020, standard duration per CAS 12 months
- Contact: info@gender-medicine.ch